GENERAL DIAZ TAKEN UNDER AMERICAN WING

By Associated Press.

Vera Cruz, Mexico, Oct. 28.—General Felix Diaz applied to the American Consulate during the night for protection and was taken on board the United States Gunboat Wheeling. Jose Sandoval and Cecido Ocon, two Mexicans and Alexander Williams, American newspaper correspondent, who had made similar applications to the consulate were also taken on board the gunboat with Gen. Diaz.

After Gen. Diaz and the other two Mexicans had dropped over the walls and made their way into the rear rooms of the Consulate, they told Consul Canada that their lives were in imminent danger. They said they knew orders for their arrest had been made. They were directed to a launch and taken to the gunboat Wheeling. When they left the Consulate they passed a number of detectives who were guarding the entrances, but they walked to the water's edge unrecognized. After regaining their composure today, Gen. Diaz and the other Mexicans said they are certain that they were to be shot today.

John Lind, the personal representative of President Wilson, who received the order from Washington to afford protection to Gen. Diaz, has notified the State Department that everything possible has been done. In his dispatch he included a letter sent by him to Rear Admiral Fletcher, in which he says he is convinced that the refugees were in imminent peril and asked that they be cared for on board the Wheeling or another vessel, until instructions arrived.

General Gustavo Maas, Commander of the Federal troops at Vera Cruz insists that he had and has no orders for the arrest of Gen. Diaz, and that he has no orders to protest against the action of the United States in affording asylum to Diaz. Gen. Maas says that Diaz might come ashore now without molestation.

REQUEST GRANTED DIAZ IS RETIRED

By Associated Press.

Mexico City, Mexico, October 28.—General Felix Diaz was placed on the retired list of the Mexican army today by order of Gen. Aurelio Blanquet, Minister of War. Gen. Diaz had requested by telegraph on Sunday to be allowed to retire and Gen. Blanquet after conferring with Provisional President Huerta, complied. Gen. Diaz held a commission for 30 years.

NAVY DEPARTMENT ASKS FOR ADVICE

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 28.—Rear Admiral Fletcher in command of the squadron at Vera Cruz reported the presence of Felix Diaz and his party as refugees on the gunboat Wheeling in an official dispatch received at the Navy Department shortly after 10:30 a. m. The Navy Department immediately called on the State Department to decide what disposition is to be made of the fugitives.

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 28.—The Gunboat Wheeling, because of her light draft, has been held at Vera Cruz with the single purpose of affording refuge to political fugitives as well as officials of the American Embassy or other Americans of foreign birth who might be in distress. The Wheeling was chosen for that particular purpose because she was able to approach the shore at Vera Cruz, whereas the light battleships would have been obliged to anchor about six miles out from the city. Officials here say there is no question whatever of the right of a naval commander to extend asylum to such fugitives as Diaz. There has been many precedents to support such action.

It is presumed that once on the Wheeling, General Diaz would soon be transported to one of the battleships in the lower harbor to remain until he can be transferred to one of the merchant steamers bound for another port. One of the possibilities of the situation, officials pointed out, was that the Huerta Government might raise a question over the fact that Diaz is a Brigadier General in the Mexican Army. His resignation recently tendered to Huerta was not accepted. How far such a circumstance would enter into the situation was regarded as interesting by officials here, who were of the opinion that Consul Canada and Rear Admiral Fletcher were within their rights in extending asylum to Diaz as a political refugee.

John Lind, President Wilson's personal representative at Vera Cruz had been instructed to offer asylum to any citizen of Mexico or any foreigner who might be in danger. Acting under such instructions Mr. Lind might have had greater freedom to act than a naval officer bound by regulations. It was pointed out that had former President Madero taken refuge in the American Embassy in Mexico City he would have been protected. The refugees probably will not be permitted to remain on the American warship. The fact, however, that Diaz still is an officer in the Mexican army or might be liable to arrest on a warrant, might complicate the situation should he eventually take passage on a commercial ship lying in a Mexican port.

FRENCH APPEAL NOT YET RECEIVED

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., October 28.—The reported appeal of the French Minister in Mexico City to Charge d'Affairs O'Shaughnessy for an American warship to protect the French colony at San Ignacio, Sinaloa, had not reached Washington today, but if such a request has been made it probably will be granted. Several battleships already are in that vicinity.

ANTICIPATED BY SECRETARY BRYAN

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., October 28.—Gen. Felix Diaz was given asylum in the American Consulate at Vera Cruz and on the gunboat Wheeling at the direct instructions of the United States government cabled a few days ago by Secretary Bryan to Consul Canada instructing him to shelter Diaz if his personal safety was in danger.

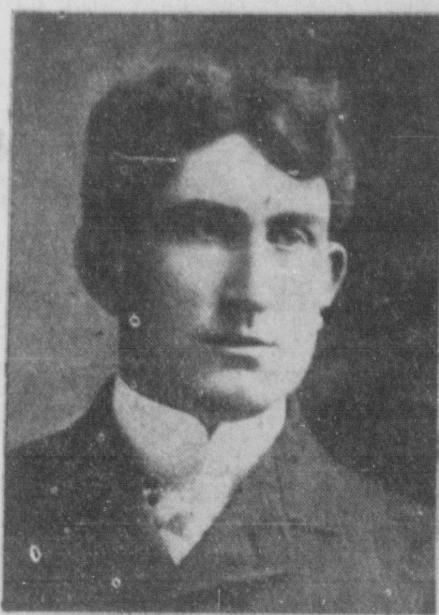

ISSUES PROCLAMATION

The Governor made mention of the flood of last March, but said the people of the state had recovered and had much for which they should be thankful.

NEW CAPTAIN FOR COMPANY M

Capt. O. E. Hardway, who for some time has been one of the leading officers of the U. R. K. of P. and is in command of the "Yellow Guards" in the Confidence lodge degree staff, was elected captain of Company M, Ohio National Guard, Monday night, filling the vacancy caused by the withdrawal of Captain Ireland a few weeks ago.

Capt. O. E. Hardway.

Capt. Hardway's experience in military work makes him an unusually desirable man to head the company, and he takes up the duties of his new office immediately.

Second Lieutenant, Samuel Lidy, has tendered his resignation from the office he has held for sometime, but his successor has not been chosen.

NEW YORK HAS CHAUFFEUR STRIKE

By Associated Press.

New York City, October 28.—Most of the 125 motor trucks of the Postal Transfer Company tied up for nearly 24 hours last night and early today by a strike of chauffeurs, were in operation today with strike breakers, and the congestion of mail matter was being rapidly cleared up. The strikers demand a 10-hour day with one hour for lunch; $3.75 per day payable weekly, time and one-half for overtime, one day off per week and recognition of the Union. The present scale is $100 per month for seven days a week.

By Associated Press.

Louisville, Ky., October 28.—Supt. Payton, of the Jeffersonville, Ind., reformatory, gave out a statement here today to the effect that Meade Barr, who was sentenced from Marion county, Ind., in 1903, and pardoned last April, had confessed to the murder of Florence Brown in a Dallas, Texas, office building last July. 1 DEAD, 3 HURT IN COLLISION

By Associated Press.

Zanesville, Ohio, Oct. 28.—Clyde Hartman, 25, brakeman on the P. & O. R. R. was killed and three others injured in a rear-end collision on the Pennsylvania road eight miles north of here early today. A Pennsylvania work train was standing around the curve when a B. & O. freight train crashed into it, smashing the tender of the Pennsylvania train. Hartman and George Price, fireman, were pinned for two hours in the wreckage after the engine was thrown over a twenty foot embankment. Hartman was taken out dead, while Price suffered a broken leg. Charles Clark of Lancaster, Ohio, an engineer for the Pennsylvania railroad was severely scalded by escaping steam and engineer Allen of the B. & O. sustained minor injuries.

CORAM NOBIS USED FIRST TIME IN OHIO

By Associated Press.

Columbus, Ohio, October 28.—Under a procedure never invoked in Ohio, known as "A Writ" or "Coram Nobis", the Supreme court granted the motions of Delbert and Owne Haslit, brothers, serving life sentences in the penitentiary for a crime committed in Adams county, for a reopening of their cases. Under this procedure after many years a case may be reopened for the introduction of new testimony on the ground that the convicted persons may not have had a hearing and trial such as the statute provides and guarantees. The brothers, who have served six years, claim they did not commit murder, but plead guilty to escape a mob.

SULZER MAKES PUBLIC DAMAGING LETTER

By Associated Press.

New York, October 28.—Stephen J. Stilwell, former State Senator, serving sentence for bribery in Sing-Sing, after impeachment charges were filed against Governor Sulzer, offered to expose the inner workings of "boss rule" in New York, if the Governor would pardon him, according to Governor Sulzer today. Stilwell claims to have been told in advance that Sulzer would be impeached and that Glynn would then become Governor and would pardon him, according to Sulzer. A letter in which Stilwell offered to make the "expose" was made public here today.

VIRGINIA OFFICIAL INVESTIGATES OHIO LAW

By Associated Press.

Columbus, Ohio, October 28.—Dr. J. H. McCullough, chief medical examiner of the West Virginia Utilities Commission, which has charge of the Workmen's Compensation law in that state, is here investigating the Ohio liability insurance methods. He declares he fears the solvency of the West Virginia fund, because of the low rate of 1 per cent. Numerous fatalities in the coal mines are responsible for this, he says.

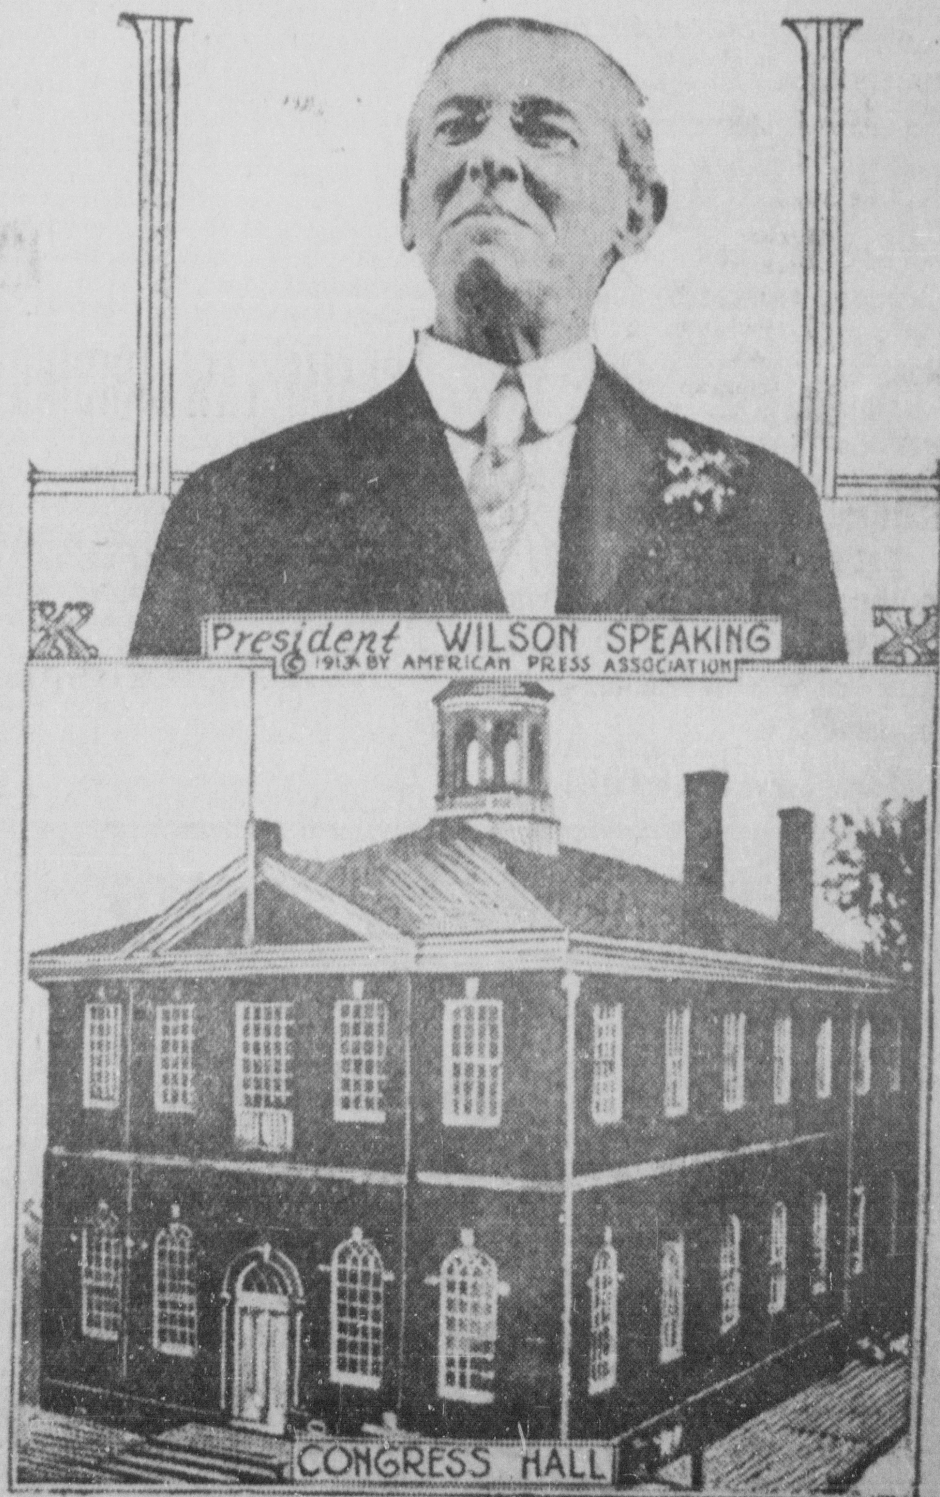

ACCEPTED BRIBE AND GOES TO PEN

By Associated Press.

Columbus, Ohio, Oct. 28.—Jacob Baschang, Cincinnati, former Deputy Auditor of Hamilton county, in charge of the collection of the Dowlaken Saloon tax, will have to serve two years in the Penitentiary for accepting a bribe of $50.00 to keep a saloon-keepers name off the tax duplicate, the Supreme Court decided today. Judgment of the lower courts was sustained.

President Wilson and Historic Congress Hall He Rededicates

Philadelphia, October 28.—The visit of President Wilson to the Quaker City to be present at the rededication of Congress hall is of national interest, for it was in that historic old brick building that Presidents Washington and Adams delivered their first messages to congress. Also it was there that George Washington delivered his farewell address to congress. It is worth while recalling that the idea of the erection of the building destined for so glorious a history originated with that celebrated lawyer, Andrew Hamilton, whose efforts had previously secured the statehouse or Independence hall. As early as 1736 Hamilton effected the passage of a resolution in the assembly of Pennsylvania providing for the erection of a building for the use of the county of Philadelphia, to be used "for the holding of courts" and as a "common hall." On the 6th of December, 1790, the third session of the First Congress of the United States met at Congress hall, the house of representatives occupying the first floor and the senate the second. At that time the statehouse in the center of the square (built in 1732) and the more modern Congress hall were considered very imposing structures. Congress hall was described by the press of the day as "a large new building, finished in a neat and elegant style." Congress held sessions in this building for ten years.

"WHAT DO YOU BELIEVE"

Rev. Frederick E. Ross, pastor of Grace church, is preparing a series of five evening lectures to be given in November on the general subject,
"What Do You Believe?" and which will undoubtedly prove to be of absorbing interest. The general theme has been divided into five points for discussion, all bristling with live issues demanding the attention of the people today.

The first, "Agnosticism, The Creed of the Doubter," will be delivered on the evening of November 2. The remainder will follow in the order given:

Nov. 9—"Mormonism; Its Meaning and Menace."

Nov. 16—"Russellism and The Millennial Dawn."

Nov. 23—"Christian Science; Its Truth and Error."

Nov. 30—"Do We Need a New Religion?"

In announcing these lectures and the general theme of "What Do You Believe?" Rev. Ross says:

"The question is of the utmost possible importance. It determines your life both here and hereafter.
If there is such a thing as ultimate religious truth we must seek it."

"We have been passing through a period of doubt. Vital religious truths have been questioned and denied. Fancies have been substituted for facts. Things have been exalted above truth. New issues and strange cults have confused and unsettled multitudes of people."

"The question—WHAT AM I TO BELIEVE? is heard on every side.
With the hope of helping all who are seeking the truth these lectures have been prepared."

A neat little folder was issued, but unfortunately errors were made in the dates.

MORE GUARDS AND HANDSOME COSTUMES

The Red Guards, under Captain Herman Price, are the latest acquisition to the splendid degree staff of Confidence Lodge, K. of P., and within the next few days the new guards will receive handsome new uniforms and will then be ready to take part in the work, in full costume.

The guards now number 27, and there are three groups: The Blues, Yellows and Reds, with Capt. Henry
Smith in command of the Blues; Capt. O. E. Hardway in charge of the Yellows, and Capt. Herman Price, the Reds.

The guards, taken with the remainders of the degree staff, make the local staff one of the finest in the state, and twice each week the drill work is faithfully carried out, so that each week adds to the thoroughness of the staff.

The entire staff is well drilled and expects to do considerable work this winter, both in this and adjoining towns.

A Lovely Face--- But Ugly Hair

How often you see an otherwise lovely face spoiled by homely hair—a face that would be most charmingly beautiful if she only had prettier hair. What a pity!—and how foolish! Because that ugly hair, stringy, dull, lifeless-looking though it may be, can be made as glossy, soft, silky and beautiful as the heart could desire if only taken proper care of.

Harmony Hair Beautifier is just what it is named—a hair beautifier.
It is not a hair dye or hair oil—it is just a dainty, rose-perfumed liquid dressing to give the hair its natural gloss and brightness, its natural wavy softness, its natural rich beauty. Very easy to apply—simply sprinkle a little on your hair each time before brushing it. It contains no oil, and will not change the color of the hair, nor darken gray hair.

To keep your hair and scalp dandruff-free and clean, use Harmony Shampoo. This pure liquid shampoo gives an instantaneous rich lather that immediately penetrates to every part of the hair and scalp, insuring a quick and thorough cleansing.
Washed off just as quickly, the entire operation takes only a few moments. Contains nothing that can harm the hair; leaves no harshness or stickiness—just a sweet-smelling cleanness.

Both preparations come in odd-shaped, very ornamental bottles, with sprinkler stops. Harmony Hair beautifier, $1.00. Harmony Shampoo, 50c. Both guaranteed to satisfy you in every way, or your money back.

Peet, filed in the supreme court. Peet was examined in supplementary pro-

LOCAL "MOOVIES" MAKE DECIDED HIT

The moving pictures taken in this city a week or ten days ago, were shown for the first time at the Wonderland theater Monday night, and will be repeated tonight and tomorrow night owing to the large numbers who are interested in the pictures.

Many scenes about the city and particularly of various business houses were shown with remarkable clearness. The pictures are of particular interest to old and young alike, and many were snapped when they were not expecting it.

A large crowd attended last night, and indications are that crowded houses will greet each appearance of the pictures.

HORSE IS STILL HOLDING HIS OWN

The following, showing that the horse is holding his own against the automobile, is taken from the current issue of Farm and Fireside:

"Reports from the Union Stock Yards of Chicago give the interesting fact that there are now employed in Chicago 72,939 horses, or only 287 less than a year ago. In Boston the number of horses is only 50 less than ten years ago. Minneapolis has 158 more, and St. Louis 730 more, than ten years ago. Inasmuch as the city driving and carriage horse has rapidly disappeared the figures show that more draft-horses are in use today than ever before, motor vehicles notwithstanding."

BAINBRIDGE BOOZE TOO MUCH FOR HIM

glefoot.

The man was lodged in the county jail until he could appear in police court Tuesday and answer to the charge which carries $5 fine and the costs.

MURET ON TRIAL BLAMES SCHMIDT

Ernest Muret, Charged With Counterfeiting, Takes Stand.

New York, Oct. 28.—Ernest Muret, on trial for counterfeiting before Judge Hunt in the United States district court, repudiated his former friend, Hans Schmidt, the murderer of Anna Aumuller. Schmidt, according to Muret, got the latter interested in a plan for the reproduction of postcards and then suggested that they use the photographic and printing outfit for making bogus money. Muret said that this so angered him that he broke with Schmidt and told him never to enter his house again. The witness denied that he knew Anna Aumuller or anything of Schmidt's relations with her.

An Untainted Fortune

The too prevalent inclination of a large class to disparage any good accomplished by men of extreme wealth or any donations presented by them, ought to receive at least a passing curb from the disposition made of his wealth by Benjamin Altman, the multi-millionaire, who recently died in New York.

There is a growing tendency, by no means confined to socialistic agitators, to condemn the rich man for no other reason than that he is rich, and to arouse in public minds a bitterness toward every man of great wealth.

The mere fact that he has millions brands him as an oppressor or a robber who usurps from the people at large.

The life of Benjamin Altman is re-enforced by the disposition which he made of his vast fortune to refute such charges in at least the one case.

Beginning life a poor boy in a little shop in New York, he built his own stepping stones on unusual ability, sound judgment and pushing industry. Free from the charge of injuring others or of dishonest dealings, he accumulated a fortune estimated from thirty to forty millions. Undoubtedly his was the day of wonderful opportunity; such opportunity as will probably not come again under changing business methods, but he was able to grasp the opportunity.

Benjamin Altman's gains were the legitimate results of his own efforts and character, rather than the outgrowth of trusts and monopolies, and today all New York is richer from the fact that he was able to accumulate millions.

To the Metropolitan Museum of Art in Central Park Mr. Altman bequeathed an art collection of priceless value. Not only New Yorkers, but the continuous procession of transient visitors to the metropolis may enjoy these rare and wonderful pictures. A collection such as Mr. Altman bequeaths is only possible to the man of both unlimited means and cultured taste.

This was the second time within a few months that the Metropolitan Museum had opened to receive superb collections which gave to it pre-eminence in the world of American art halls.

But for the gifts of multi-millionaires the Metropolitan Museum would never have existed.

While generously remembering his family, Mr. Altman's will provides that a large share of his millions go to hospitals and charitable institutions and also for a trust fund to permanently care for faithful employees.

A distribution of wealth such as Mr. Altman's shows in its careful planning broad human sympathy and beneficence. It quiets for the moment the demagogue who constantly inveighs against the rich man, stirring up envy and bitterness, but who would in all probability, be only too willing to accept a fortune of unlimited millions.

Many men of great wealth have gained their fortune by dubious means, but why condemn all rich men,

The people at large have shared indirectly in many of the world's great fortunes—fortunes which have built colleges, churches, hospitals, schools, libraries, art museums, parks, play grounds, and made possible a culture otherwise impossible.

It may be we are coming to a different era, when fortunes will no longer be reckoned in many figures, but in the past great fortunes have played their part and have given to the people much needed institutions and opportunity for the developing of the sense of the beautiful.

Poetry For Today

AUTUMN NIGHTS.

The nights of song and story,
With breath of frost and rain,
Whole locks are wild and hoary,
Whose fingers tap the pane,
Like ghosts, are come again.

The nights of old October,
That hug the earth and tell,
To child and grandsire, sobor
Tales of what long befell
Of witch and warlock spell.

And all such tales that glomored
The child heart once with fright,
That aged lips have stammered
That many a child's delight,
Shall speak again tonight.

Tonight, of moonlight minted,
That is cup divine,
Whence earth, all opal tinted,
Wreathed red with leaf and vine,
Shall drink a magic wine.

A wonder wine of Comus,
That with enchantment streams,
In which the heart of Momus,

INTERESTING BITS OF NEWS

(By John E. M. Kerr.)

Spokane 1915.—"You'll miss it if You Miss It." This is the motto selected by the publicity committee of the Spokane Chamber of Commerce out of nearly 4,000 proposals as the catch word combination that will be heralded throughout the land as an invitation to tourists to see Spokane on their western trip.

The Bookman makes the statement that though prices for the work of famous writers in these days have ranged from 20 cents to $1 a word, probably the poem "An Old Sweetheart of Mine" by James Whitcomb Riley, has earned the most money for its author. It is estimated that this bit of verse has yielded Mr. Riley over $500.00 a word.

James Thorpe, the famous Carlisle Indian athlete who is a regular member of the New York Giants on its world tour, is doing some heavy batting for his team and it will surprise few to find him a regular outfielder in next year's National league championship race.

Since the first gift of $2,500,000 by an anonymous "Mr. Smith" the second anonymous benefactor gave the Massachusetts Institute of Technology about $50,000 to erect permanent buildings for a summer camp. A third and fourth gift just announced bring the total of anonymous gifts up to $31,500,000 of which all but the $50,000 has no restrictions.

An average of nearly $1000 a room for the furnishings of the 53 new offices for congressmen that are being added to the House office building has been approved by the Senate. A bill just passed appropriating $50,000 for the furnishing.

There is perhaps no more interesting feature of the hotel business than the importance of incidentals. Many a hotel proves successful because of a profit derived from a source that to a casual guest would seem insignificant. There is a hotel in New York which is said to be able to pay an annual dividend because it charges 10 cents for each portion of bread and butter served with meals. When one notices that the dining room accommodates 1,000 people and is filled at least twice a day and then multiplies 2,000 by 10 and that by 365 one gets a total of 7,300,000 which means $73,000 for a year's bread and butter service.—Exchange.

With us in America, declares Herbert Putman, librarian of Congress, "The reading habit is already general and avid and the problem is no longer to create but to direct it. I personally hope the time will come when our public libraries will revert to the recommendations of Emerson and buy no book, in any but the literature of knowledge less than a year old."

FRANTIC WITH ECZEMA

Itching and Burning Drive One Almost Mad.

Try This Remedy at Our Risk.

Children, and grown persons too, are so often driven almost frantic with the intolerable itching and burning of eczema and other skin troubles, that a remedy which will not only secure their immediate comfort, but also clear away the eruption in a short time, is nothing less than a public benefit.

It is remarkable that so mild and harmless an application as our new skin remedy, Saxo Salve, can stop the itching so quickly as it does.

And its penetrating healing power is even more remarkable, for improvement is seen after the first few days and the final results must satisfy the user or we refund the money.

If you have any itching, or burning rash or humor of the skin, any scaly or chronic old skin trouble, Saxo Salve is what you need and you should try this splendid remedy.

A GLIMPSE BACK THROUGH YEARS

(John E. M. Kerr.)

April 4, 1872.

J. B. Blume has sold his dental office and business to Dr. J. F. Dennis, who will remove it to Mrs. Jenkins' room, opposite the post office, first door east of Plumb's jewelry store. We call attention to Dr. D's ad. in this paper.

D. Furtwangler has opened up a music department in his jewelry store. He will keep a large supply of popular sheet music on hand and furnish any music wanted on order at publishers' prices. Special discount to music teachers.

The undersigned hereby tender their grateful acknowledgements to the citizens of Washington, both ladies and gentlemen, for the efficient and successful aid they furnished in preserving our property adjacent to the fire on Saturday evening, from destruction.

Judge McLean, while viewing the ruins of the fire, drew from the ashes with his cane, an old pot-ramble, an article used for hanging pots over the fire, which he at once recognized as belonging to his parents from his earliest recollection. It is a bar of iron about three feet long, hooked at the ends, and contains a number of holes along the bar. The pot-ramble was in use long before the crane was introduced. The Judge says his parents went to house-keeping in Pennsylvania in 1797 and that this individual iron was one of the necessary articles they commenced with, and when they moved west they brought it with them. The building was once owned by the Judge, and this relic of former days had been stored away for many years.

Hartman Theater

A few months ago Dr. Donald Robertson, a well known actor-manager, conceived the idea of organizing a high-class company to produce the best plays in all countries and in this he has been supported by a number of prominent patrons of the better class of attractions—notably Mrs. Harold McCormick, of Chicago. His company will be seen at the Hartman Theatre, Columbus, the last half of next week—November 6, 7, 8th, with matinee on Saturday. He will present Moliere's brilliant satirical comedy, "The Learned Ladies" at the evening performances and "A Curious Accident", by Carlo Goldoni, at the Saturday matinee.

At this particular time when the woman of this state are aroused in the effort to obtain suffrage, "The Learned Ladies" should have an especial appeal for both sexes. The afternoon bill, "A Curious Accident" is a comedy and is said to afford Mr. Robertson exceptionally excellent opportunity for display of his talents.

PROTECTION FOR FISH AND GAME

Organization Is Effected Last Night at Meeting of Sportsmen Interested in Fish and Game Protective Association.

APPLICATION MADE FOR FISH TO RESTOCK STREAMS.

All Landowners Who Have Been Annoyed by Careless Hunters and Fishers Will Welcome Protection Given by the New Organization—Fish, Game and Song Birds to Be Given Careful Attention.

Quite a number of sportsmen met Monday night and organized the Fayette County Fish and Game Protective Association, for the protection of fish, game and property of its members throughout the county, and within a short time a membership of several hundred persons in every nook and corner of the county is expected, owing to the splendid work of such an organization.

Officers of the new organization were elected as follows: C. A. Cave, president; O. W. Browne, vice president; Ed Fite, secretary and T. W. McFadden, treasurer. Each of the officers is well known both in the city and county, and have no personal aims to advance.

The dues of the organization will be the same as similar organizations in Ross and Madison counties—$1 per year.

The object of the Fayette County Fish and Game Protective Association is:

"The re-stocking of the streams with fish, the enforcement of the fish and game laws, and the laws protecting song birds; and the rendering of all proper assistance to city and county officials in preventing pollution of water courses, and the malicious destruction of property by hunters or fishermen."

It will be noticed that the intent of the association is commendable, and landowners will be protected from damage due to careless hunters and fishermen, and that song birds will be protected as well as fish and game, and that Fayette county streams will be restocked with fish so that there will be something really worth fishing for.

At the meeting Monday night application was made to General John C. Speaks, of the Fish and Game Commission, for several thousand small fish to place in Fayette streams at once, and the Association will frequently obtain shipments of fish for the local streams.

Deputy Game Warden J. S. Sackett was present at the meeting, and gave much helpful information to the sportsmen who were assembled. He also assisted in the recent organization of a similar association in Ross county, and has assisted other counties in the work.

Scores of men in this city and in every township of the county have long been interested in just such an organization, but until Monday night no one ever went at the work of organizing. Already a number have sent word that they wish to become members, and the Fayette County Fish and Game Protective Association is expected to go forward by leaps and bounds.

DANGEROUSLY ILL NOW RECOVERING

C. E. Wolf, of West Elm street, a well known teamster, became violently ill shortly after noon Monday, and for several hours his life was despaired of. However Tuesday afternoon he was very much better and will soon be able to be about his regular work once more.

He was found in the bedroom at the Wolfe home, Monday afternoon, in a semi-conscious condition. Physicians were summoned and one remained at his bedside throughout the afternoon.

Mr. Wolfe has long been subject to stomach trouble, and the sudden attack Monday afternoon was due to acute indigestion.

K. OF P. COUNTY MEETING NOV. 17

Grand Chancellor Names New County Deputy to Succeed One Who Failed to Qualify and Names Date For Annual Convention of Fayette Knights of Pythias.

Monday evening, November 17, is the date selected for the annual County convention of the Knights of Pythias lodges in Fayette county, and Mr. A. L. Breakfield, member of Confidence lodge No. 265, has been appointed by Grand Chancellor S. A. Hoskins of Wapakoneta, as County Deputy for the meeting.

Fayette county is probably the only county in the state that did not hold a County convention last week, but for some unknown reason the man who was named County deputy failed to qualify and no meeting was called. When this came to the attention of the Grand Chancellor, he immediately appointed another County Deputy and called the meeting for November 17th.

The convention will be held at the Pythian Castle in this city, and arrangements will be made for a splendid meeting and an enjoyable evening.

Grand Chancellor Hoskins will in all probability attend the convention, and several hundred Knights are expected to assemble for the meeting.

RING TAIL COON COSTS MAN $25

While Deputy Game Warden J. S. Sackett was in Sabina Monday afternoon he spied a colored man who was carrying a package that looked suspiciously like rabbits, so he called a halt and examined the package, with the result that the carcass of a monster coon was disclosed.

The man was informed that he must answer for the offense of having the coon in his possession out of season, and quickly informed the deputy that Geo. W. Bernard, a farmer living near Sabina, had killed the coon and that it had been purchased from him.

Bernard was nearby so he was escorted to Squire S. D. Stotler's court where he pleaded guilty and drew a fine of $25 and the costs. He protested that Mr. Ring Tail Coon had been killing his nephew's chickens, and at the request of Deputy Sackett the fine was suspended for a few days until he could make an investigation with a view to having the entire fine suspended should the man's claim prove correct.

$2,000 DAMAGES ASKED IN SUIT

Jesse E. Proffitt Monday afternoon filed suit in Common Pleas court in which he makes Lewis H. Mark the defendant and asks $2,000 damages for alleged failure to comply with a contract for the lease of the defendant's farm.

According to the petition a lease was entered into between the two men, whereby the defendant leased his farm to the plaintiff, giving him the privilege of sowing wheat in the fall of 1912, and possession of the farm on March 1st, 1913. The wheat was sowed but the defendant, it is alleged, failed to give possession of the farm, and kept the wheat.

WIFE LEFT HIM SUES FOR DIVORCE

In the Common Pleas court Tuesday morning Martin Judy, through Attorney C. E. Baughn, filed suit for divorce from Mayme Judy, whom he married in Dayton, May 18, 1910.

Gross neglect of duty is the charge made against the defendant. The plaintiff charges that the defendant left him in May, 1912, going to Columbus and from thence to Dayton, where she now is.

CRAIG BROS

FAILED TO LAND HIS THREE MEN

When Game Warden Sackett arrived at the home of the Pope brothers, near Sabina, Monday, armed with affidavits charging the men with two offenses against the fish and game laws, he learned that the three men were in Indiana attending the funeral of a relative, and will not return until the latter part of this week.

As the men are prominent farmers in the neighborhood, they will make no attempt to prevent their arrest, it is believed.

Deputy Sackett again went to the same neighborhood Tuesday morning for the purpose of arresting a man named Grove, for illegal fishing.

Stock Sales Attract Crowd

Quite a number of good horses were offered in the regular monthly stock sales in this city Tuesday, and the demand for such horses was, as usual, greater than the supply.

A good sized crowd attended the sales in the afternoon, many farmers bringing with them one or more animals which they do not care to carry through the winter.

SLEEPING TREE FOUND.

South Sea Island Palm Blooms Only Once in Fifty Years.

San Francisco.—A specimen of the rare "sleeping palm" has been found in Golden Gate park, probably the only one in the United States. Curator Barron discovered it as he was walking in the park with his young son. The tree, which was brought to this country forty years ago by the famous Australian botanist, William Robinson, gives out a peculiar aromatic odor.

Barron smelled the exotic fragrance and discovered the tree, whose upper branches were laden with beautiful rainbow hued flowers giving forth heavy perfume. It was found that the tree, which had originally been brought from one of the south sea islands, belonged to the species Coccoloba somnifera, or sleeping palm, which blooms only once in fifty years and the flowers of which were formerly used as a drug by islanders.

GOVERNOR BREWER OF MISSISSIPPI IS ATTACKED BY ENEMIES

Jackson, Miss., Oct. 28.—Political enemies of Governor Earl Brewer were reported to be conspiring to bring impeachment proceedings against him. A big political fight has been precipitated by the publication in a Texas paper of a charge concerning Governor Brewer. It is alleged that Lieutenant Governor Theodore G. Bilbo, Mayor S. J. Taylor of Jackson, several state senators and representatives and C. R. Boyce of Memphis are behind the movement to impeach the governor. Boyce was involved in a cotton deal criticised by Governor Brewer. Brewer's friends assert that the "plot" is the result of his activity in sending several prominent men to the penitentiary for grafting.

In Social Circles

"Indian Day" furnished unique daughters of the American Revolution at the October meeting held in Memorial hall Monday afternoon. The distinctive entertainment for the hostesses were Mesdames Hess, Howat, Fullerton, Haynes, Misses Ogle and Van Winkle, Mrs. John Case, of Greenfield; Mrs. Clark Hunsicker and Mrs. Chas. Baker, of Woodlyn.

At the special request of the hostesses the girls of the "Algonquin tribe" put on the afternoon's program, a program so out of the ordinary and cleverly given that it won delighted plaudits from the Daughters.

The stage presented a scene of Indian camp life, wigwams, picturesque costumes, Indian blankets and paraphernalia, and the young girls put on part of Longfellow's "Hiawatha," the scenes from the Indian's childhood very beautifully. Each member of the tribe took a character, the girls picturesque in their Indian garb, and the entire little play as pretty a sketch from the noted poem as even the auditor could desire.

The sweet young voices followed recitation with songs set to weird Indian music and closed with an Indian dance around the camp fire.

The members of the Algonquins taking part were Ruth Grafton, Helen Baker, Doris Willis, Marion Whelpley, Aileen Hess, Virginia Campbell.

After the entertainment there was the usual social hour with refreshments.

Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Hunsicker, of Woodlyn; Mrs. Case and Mrs. Simmons were out-of-town Daughters.

JEWELS AND GOWNS SLIPPED IN

Secret Service Men Working On the Theory That Valuables Are Being Smuggled Into Small Towns On Shallow Watercourses of the Atlantic Coast—Transfers Believed To Be Made at Sea.

Washington, Oct. 28.—A big smuggling plot, supposed to extend in its ramifications over the entire seaboard and small watercourses of the Atlantic coast, is being investigated by special agents of the customs service and secret service men.

The government agents are working on the theory that valuable jewels, gowns and millinery are being slipped into small towns on shallow watercourses in vessels supposedly in the coastwise trade. Every such port of entry and many small towns that are not ports are being closely guarded by secret agents. The net extends from the northernmost Maine coast to the Gulf of Mexico and the Texas border.

The small places along the coast have not the customs machinery of the larger ports, and officials of the administration have been informed there is a revival of coastwise smuggling that made life interesting for the revenue agents in the early days of the republic and that made the revenue cutter service famous.

Though the customs agents are very active, it is said that no direct evidence of such smuggling has developed.

The scrutiny takes in power boats and sailing vessels as well as larger vessels engaged regularly in coastwise trade. How such vessels are supposed to get the contraband will not be divulged.

It has been hinted that the customs authorities have reason to suspect that some transfers of merchandise to small coastwise vessels have been made at sea.

CO-OPERATION WITH THE U. S. IS PROMISED

POWERS' STAND IS MADE KNOWN

Would Aid Uncle Sam In Restoring Peace In Mexico.

LIGHT THROWN ON SITUATION

State Department to Remain Inactive Until the Results of the Election in Mexico Is Made Known Officially and President Huerta Has Disclosed His Plan of Action—Report of Fall of Monterey Denied.

Washington, Oct. 28.—Information received here served to outline more clearly than ever before the exact position of the European nations in regard to Mexico. This information, which comes from London, is in effect that the British government and the other powers will gladly co-operate with the United States in any policy toward Mexico calculating to restore peace in that country. The British and other foreign offices, it is said, are merely waiting for President Wilson to propose to them some plan of action looking to the restoration of peace.

It was announced that the state department had been informed that the reports of the capture of Monterey by the revolutionists are untrue and that the city is still held by the federals after three days' fighting. No foreigners were killed during the fighting. Quiet now exists in the city.

The state department is without complete reports from Mexico on the elections held Sunday. To all appearances the department has made up its mind to sit quiet until the result of the election, or lack of result, is made known officially and President Huerta has disclosed his plan of action. Department officials reiterated that there is nothing to be done until Huerta has come out in the open and shown what he intends to do about it.

That some statement of position will follow Huerta's actions on the elections is indicated. It is not likely, however, there will be a circular note addressed to all the powers. The difference is more apparent than realistic, as President Wilson has already adopted the policy of communicating to all governments interested in Mexico copies of every statement addressed to Mexico for their information.

According to a report from the American embassy, the Mexican minister said in regard to the vote for Provisional President Huerta and Minister of War Blanquet: "I have no news of any great number of votes having been cast for Huerta and Blanquet. Those which may have been cast for Huerta will be thrown out as illegal on the ground of unconstitutionality, in accordance with the president's declaration."

W. C. T. U. ELECTS

Brooklyn, Oct. 28.—The W. C. T. U. convention re-elected Rosalind, Countess of Carlisle, to be the world's W. C. T. U. president. Mrs. Lillian M. N. Stevens of Portland, Me., was chosen vice president, Miss Agnes Slack, secretary, and Mrs. Mary E. Sanderson, treasurer. Resolutions were adopted advocating worldwide prohibition of the manufacture and sale of liquor, and woman suffrage as a remedy for the opium traffic and the white slave traffic.

ACCIDENT AT RINGSIDE

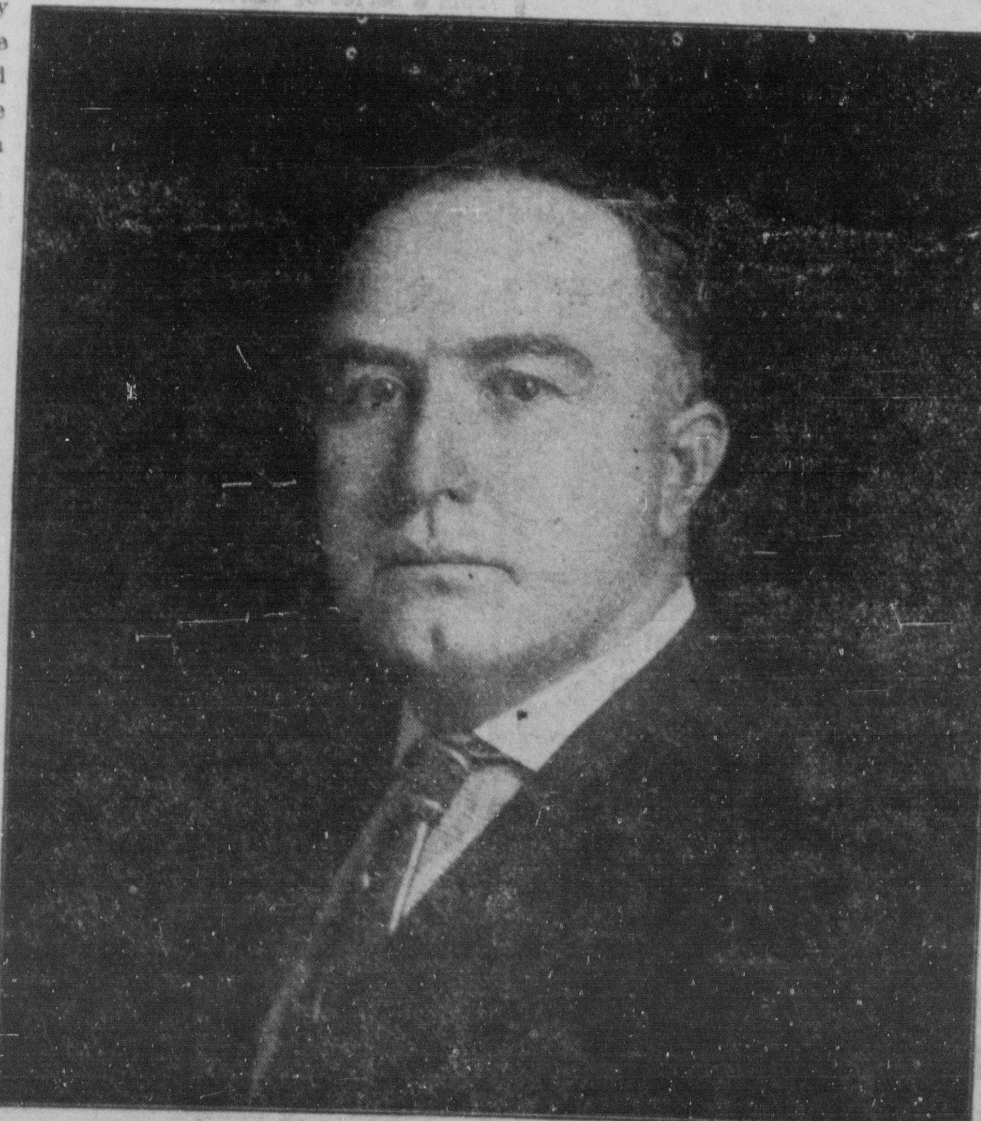

Taft, Cal., Oct. 28.—The cheers of the excited fans watching the battle between Jack Lester and Sam Langford were suddenly turned to cries of pain when a scaffolding in the huge fight arena collapsed, dropping 100 spectators to the ground. All were painfully injured and several are in a serious condition. Lester received a terrible beating at the hands of Langford. He lasted four rounds.

MISS ELKINS WEDS

Bride of Millionaire Son of Former Illinois Congressman.

Elkins, W. Va., Oct. 28.—Miss Katherine Elkins, rumors of whose engagement to the Duke D'Abruzzi and to "Billy" Hitt repeatedly have gained currency in recent years, usually to be denied, was married to the latter here. The ceremony was performed in the large hall room at "Hallhurst," the home of Mrs. Stephen B. Elkins, widow of the former United States senator.

Ex-Senator Davis Elkins was the best man and Miss Elkins was attended by Mrs. Blaine Elkins. Owing to the suddenness of the whole affair no attention was paid to dress and the ceremony was most informal.

Mr. and Mrs. Hitt left in ex-Senator Henry C. Davis' private car, "Grace-land," for a honeymoon trip of several weeks through the eastern states.

Mr. Hitt's father was a United States representative from Illinois. At the death of his father he became heir to an estate valued in the millions of dollars. Miss Elkins is known throughout the country as a great horsewoman.

COURT HOLDS BOARD ABUSED AUTHORITY

Scalps of Election Officials Demanded at Columbus.

Columbus, O., Oct. 28.—Supporters of nonpartisan candidates declare that they will demand of Secretary of State Graves that he dismiss John J. Joyce and George Van Loan, Democratic members of the Franklin county election board, and Richard Lloyd, the Republican member, who voted to strike the names of the three Republican candidates from the local nonpartisan ballot, as the result of Judge Rogers' criticism of the board in his decision in the mandamus suit. Judge Rogers held that the board had acted within its rights but had abused its authority.

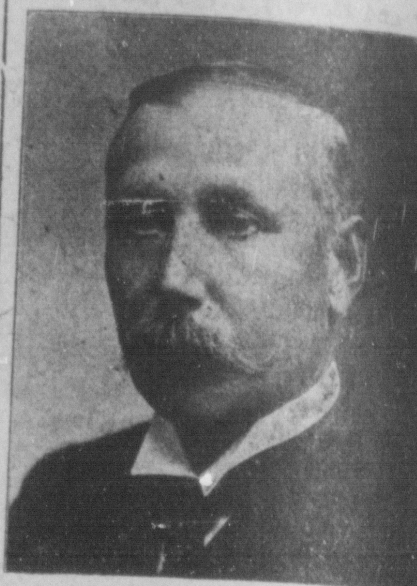

While estopped from allowing the writ of mandamus because of the peculiarity of the election laws, which make a ruling of the election board final, whether it follows the law or not, Judge Rogers declared that, in his opinion, the law gave the candidates a right to have their name on both ballots.

"PIE FRUIT" IS UNUSUALLY SCARCE

The big golden pumpkins will be scarce at Hallowe'en parties this year, because of a shortage in the crop.

However, the lack of Hallowe'en pumpkins would not be felt so badly if there was not a lack of them in big, toothsome pies, for the table.

The dry weather the past summer was too much for the golden "pie fruit", and the crop is not only short in numbers, but in size, and few farms have been blessed with a good yield this season.

G. R. Auker, residing on the Fennor farm in Paint township, has a crop above the average this year, and a few days ago brought a load to this city and sold them to one dealer.

The judge deprecated the failure to wear a petticoat, and asked why. The young woman answered that it was nobody's business but her own. Her reply was made one-half minute before the sentence was imposed.

Yale Team Strengthened By Return Of Pumpelly to Active Work

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 28.—The return of Pumpelly to the football training squad at Yale university has given new courage to the wearers of the blue. Pumpelly is the best kicker Yale has, and his long spell in the hospital will not, it is believed, take the edge off his work. In addition to his kicking powers, the lad, a halfback, is a reliable line buckler.

TROOP TRAIN IS BLOWN UP

Hundreds of Soldiers Killed or Injured by Mexican Rebels.

Mexico City, Oct. 28.—One hundred and forty federal soldiers were killed and at least a score more are dying as a result of the destruction of a troop train by rebels. The train was approaching San Salvador when the rebel force set off a tremendous charge of dynamite under a trestle. So heavy was the charge that the engine was torn into small bits and several cars with their human freight were splintered. At least 100 more soldiers are hurt so badly that they will be unfit for service for some time. San Salvador is in Zacatecas. The train was one of three, all heavily laden. The other trains were so close behind that debris was showered over them.

CIGARETS MISSING WIFE WANTS DIVORCE

Manufacturer's Wife Claims Hubby Gave Away Her Cigarets.

New York, Oct. 28.—That their romance, which started in the offices of the United States Steel corporation, where both were employed, was wrecked when her husband met another woman, is the contention of Mrs. Lillian McCloskey, who brought suit for separation from Donald H. McCloskey, president of the Motor-Bloc company. She claims her husband lavished on the other woman cigarettes bearing her monogram which cost $4.70 a box. She asks $100 weekly alimony.

DEFENSE RESTS IN REFERENDUM CASE

Columbus, O., Oct. 28.—In the final arguments before the supreme court on the referendum fraud case, Attorney General Hogan expressed a willingness to rest the defense of Secretary of State Graves to the charge of abuse of discretion on the testimony of Secretary Charles S. Gongwer of the Equity association that substantially the same solicitors procured the signatures which were filed as had procured the 40,000 signatures which he had withheld because he thought them fraudulent. That admission, he said, relieved the secretary of state of the task of determining what signatures are good.

Death Wins Fight

Merchant Who Took Mercury Tablets by Mistake Succumbs.

New York, Oct. 28.—Death came to Isaac Levy, a merchant, and ended the fight he had been making for seven days and a half against the bichloride of mercury tablets he took in mistake for aspirin. He was blind and suffering terrible agony towards the last and only lapsed into unconsciousness two hours before he died. Thus ended the most gallant fight that has been made against this form of poisoning, according to Dr. Jacob Sar-noff, who had charge of the case. Levy left a wife and 11 children.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION

SEES MANY THINGS TO BE GRATEFUL FOR Governor Cox Issues Thanksgiving Proclamation.

Columbus, O., Oct. 28.—Governor Cox today issued the following Thanksgiving proclamation:

The year's activities, so far as nature is concerned, are about over. The crops have been made and harvested. We have passed safely and prosperously through the spring and summer, and the fall is full upon us. The winter's business stares us in the face. It is therefore well that, in conformity with the custom of our forefathers, we set aside a day of Thanksgiving—that we cease our labors for the day and give thanks to God for the blessings that have been showered upon the earth.

It is true that disasters have fallen about us at times. The storms and floods devastated many homes and claimed their victims by the hundreds. Our means of transportation and communication were interrupted. Clouds of sorrow hung low about the state, and grief was everywhere. But the sun returned to the heavens and hope was enthroned in the hearts of men and women. The great state of Ohio immediately took her accustomed place in the list of American commonwealths, and factory and farm again responded to the touch of intelligent hands.

So we have abundant reason, notwithstanding the blows we have received, to gather at our homes and in our places of worship and to offer up our thanks to the Divinity that so guided the world as to relieve us of our distress.

As chief executive of the state of Ohio, I do, therefore, proclaim Thursday, Nov. 27, 1913, as a day of Thanksgiving, and call upon all citizens of the state to observe it as such.

OHIO HAPPENINGS

Thrown From Wagon and Killed.

Columbus, O., Oct. 28.—Joseph Humes, 17, son of Algy Humes, a farmer, living on the Mock road, east of the city, was almost instantly killed when the team he was driving ran away and threw him off the wagon. A polecat, which Humes' dog was chasing, ran under the feet of the horses, frightening the animals.

Steel Company Insolvent.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 28.—Creditors of the Leontina Steel company of Leontina filed an involuntary petition in bankruptcy in the federal court here. Liabilities of the concern are said to be in excess of $1,600,000. The company previously had admitted insolvency in a suit brought against it.

Granted Extension of Time.

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 28.—United States District Judge Hollister granted the plea of the attorneys for the officials of the National Cash Register company for an extension of time until Dec. 1 in the criminal suit against the Cash Register officials, which was to have been heard Nov. 1.

Killed in Runaway.

Newark, O., Oct. 28.—Harvey Smith, 55, a farmer, suffered a fracture of the skull from which he died within an hour after falling off a wagon, five miles north of here. A singletree came loose and the team ran away. Smith leaves a widow and three children.

Hotel Damaged by Fire.

Marion, O., Oct. 28.—Fire on the third floor of the new Eastman hotel, discovered by plumbers at work, did damage to the extent of $10,000. For a time adjoining buildings were threatened. The lower floors were flooded and the furnishings ruined.

Has No Direct Heirs.

MRS. EATON DOES NOT ADMIT MUCH

By Associated Press.
Plymouth, Mass., October 28.—"I might have done so but I don't admit it," said Mrs. Jennie May Eaton on trial for the murder of her husband today, when the states attorney tried to get her to admit that she ordered her daughter Dorothy to bed early the two nights before the death of the Rear Admiral. She concluded her testimony at noon today after having been on the stand for 15 hours.

ARMADA TO SAIL THROUGH CANAL

All Nations Expected to Join In Celebration.

160 SHIPS MAY BE IN FLEET

First Representatives of Other Governments Will Assemble at Hampton Roads—After President Reviews Vessels They Will Go to San Francisco. Four Days to Go Through Canal.

Washington.—Anchored in Hampton Roads early in 1915 will be the greatest international fleet ever gathered in American waters, assembled in answer to the invitation of the United States government to celebrate the completion of the Panama canal by making a voyage to the Pacific through the new waterway.

The precise number of vessels which will lie in the famous roadstead is not yet known to the officers of the navy department in charge of the arrangements for rendezvous, as so far there have been no formal responses received to the invitations dispatched by the state department to all of the nations of the world.

Some of the nations with great navies may be represented by squadrons of four or more warships, others by only one or two, and some of the countries practically without navies including vessels of the first class will be represented only in the personnel of their legations and commissions to the Panama-Pacific exposition.

The formal invitation of the United States was dispatched to all the diplomatic officers of the United States abroad by Secretary Bryan. It recited the fact that in the navy appropriation act of 1911 the president was authorized and requested in extending his invitation to foreign nations to participate in the exposition also to invite "their representatives and their fleets to assemble at Hampton Roads, Virginia, and from thence come to the city of Washington, there to be formally welcomed by the president." The president also is to go to Hampton Roads to review the assembled fleets as they start on their voyage to San Francisco.

It is expected that the American invitation will meet with general acceptance, and the result will be the gathering of a fleet of perhaps seventy-five or a hundred warships of the best type, for the reason that slow and antiquated vessels would be unable to keep pace with the rest of the fleet in the cruise from Hampton Roads to the Golden Gate.

The international fleet will probably be under command of an American vice admiral. In all likelihood Cameron McR. Winslow, for it is expected that congress, which has authorized the assembly, will make provision for this new grade rather than have the American commander outranked by some foreign naval officer.

The ceremonies at Hampton Roads and the time required for a visit to Washington by the foreign visitors will consume about a week or ten days, and then, headed by the American fleet, probably with the super-Dreadnought New York at the right of the column, the great armada will take its way southward for Colon.

It is estimated that about four days will be required to pass the fleet through the locks and the canal and about twice that length of time will suffice to replenish the coal bunkers before they resume their cruise.

All Pupils Are Kellys.
Milton, Ore.—The North Fork school, a few miles above Milton, is probably one of the strangest in the country. The school is attended by seven pupils, and they are all the children of one family, Mr. and Mrs. H. Kelly. Miss Helen Narkins has been engaged this year to teach the school.

Flagship and Commander of United States Fleet Designed to "Educate" Foreign Nations on Cruise.

Photos by American Press Association.

Unusual interest is being manifested in official circles at Washington in the cruise of the Atlantic fleet battleships to the Mediterranean. The cruise is a "courtesy trip," but it is being pointed out here that incidentally it will direct the attention of the world to two important facts. One is that American battleships in actual service are prepared to hold their own against any navy afloat except that of Great Britain, and that because of its geographic advantages the United States can dispatch its Dreadnoughts 3,000 miles from home shores without uneasiness. In addition to their present crews, the battleships carry 1,500 men from the naval training stations on the great lake. One consignment of provisions for the ships includes 40,000 pounds of fresh beef and 120,000 dozen of fresh eggs. For the Mediterranean trip the battleships divided into three divisions, commanded by Rear Admirals Cameron McR. Winslow, Frank F. Fletcher and Frank E. Beatty. Rear Admiral Charles J. Badger is in command of the entire fleet of nine battleships, and his flagship is the Wyoming. The Wyoming is shown, together with Rear Admiral Badger, in the accompanying illustration.
